F. chronometer, watch & clock maker by special appointment to Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, to the principal sovereigns & courts of Europe & to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, 34 Cockspur st. Charing cross SW. M. F. Dent's watches, clocks & chronometers have long held pre-eminent rank, as may be seen by numerous reports from persons of high scientific attainments.—The Astronomer Royal, in his Report to the Admiralty in 1870, says—"M. F. Dent's chronometer is the finest we have ever had on trial," referring to annual trials during a period of forty years. The judges in their horological report at the Philadelphia Exhibition said of M. F. Dent's chronometers & watches—"The workmanship was of the first order," and of his clocks—"they were representative of the highest achievements of his art." Supreme Court of Judicature.

By the Supreme Court of Judicature Act 1873, 36 & 37 Vict. cap. 66, sect. 3, as amended by the Amendment Act of 1875 38 & 39 Vict. cap. 77, § 9, the Court of Chancery, the Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer, and the Courts of Admiralty, Probate, and Divorce, were united and consolidated together as one SUPREME COURT OF JUDICATURE.

The Supreme Court has no judicial functions. It never sits as a Court. It consists of two permanent divisions, viz "HIS MAJESTY'S HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE" and "HIS MAJESTY'S COURT OF APPEAL."

By an order in Council which came into force on 26th February, 1881, the Three Common Law Divisions were consolidated into one, to be called King's Bench Division, and the offices of Chief Justice of the Common Pleas and Lord Chief Baron were abolished.

By the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1881, the Master of the Rolls ceased to be a Judge of the Chancery Division.

By the Bankruptcy Act, 1883, Section 93, the London Bankruptcy Court was united and consolidated with and made to form part of the Supreme Court of Judicature, and the jurisdiction of the London Bankruptcy Court was transferred to the High Court of Justice, and by virtue of an Order dated 1st Jan. 1884, made under sec. 94 of the said Act assigned to the King's Bench Division of the said High Court.

By the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1891 (54 & 55 Vict. c. 53. sec. 1), Ex-Lord Chancellors are made Judges of the Court of Appeal. By sec. 3, the House of Lords may call in the aid of one or more assessors on appeals in Admiralty actions. Section 4, sub-section 1, enacts that the High Court in England shall be a Prize Court within the meaning of the Naval Prize Act 1864 (27 & 28 Vict. c. 25). By sub-section 2 all causes and matters under this Act as a Prize Court are assigned to the Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division of the Court.

COURT OF APPEAL (HIS MAJESTY'S).

This Court has jurisdiction over appeals from all judgments or orders of His Majesty's High Court of Justice, except in criminal and certain other cases (Judicature Act, 1873, §§ 19, 47, 49).

By sec. 18, all the jurisdiction and powers of the following Courts, &c., are also transferred to and vested in the Court of Appeal, viz.:—

(1) The appellate jurisdiction of the Lord Chancellor and the Court of Appeal in Chancery (including, as to the latter, its appellate jurisdiction in Bankruptcy)
(2) The Court of Appeal in Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, and the Chancellor of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster as a judge of appeal
(3) The Court of the Lord Warden of the Stannaries
(4) The Court of Exchequer Chamber
(5) The jurisdiction of His Majesty in Council or the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council on appeal from judgments of the Admiralty Court or from Orders in Lunacy

Three additional ordinary Judges of the Court have been transferred from the High Court of Justice, under the powers of "The Appellate Jurisdiction Act, 1876."

By the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1877, 40 Vict. cap. 9, sec. 4, it was enacted that the ordinary Judges of the Court of Appeal should be styled Lord Justices of Appeal.

By the Supreme Court of Judicature Act 1881, sec. 2, it was enacted that the Master of the Rolls should cease to be a Judge of His Majesty's High Court of Justice, but should continue an ex-officio Judge of the Court of Appeal, and retain his title and privileges.

By the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1884, sec. 3, it was enacted that the President for the time being of the Probate, Divorce, and Admiralty Division of the High Court of Justice should have rank and precedence in the Court of Appeal next after all ordinary Judges of that Court appointed before the time at which he shall have become an ex-officio member thereof.
